

PARTS OF A SENTENCE - OVERVIEW

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

The subject and predicate: A complete thought

In English, every sentence needs two parts. The subject and the predicate.

The dog runs down the street

Subject predicate

Without these two parts, the sentence is not a complete thought. They must be in this order as well.

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

The Subject: The Naming Part

The subject of a sentence is who or what the sentence is about. The subject is a noun. A noun is any person place or thing.

The dog runs down the street.

Subject

"The dog" is the subject. This is what the sentence is about.

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

The Predicate: The Telling Part

The predicate of a sentence tells what the subject is doing. It will start with a verb and contain the object (a noun).

The dog runs down the street.

Verb + Object

"runs down the street" is the predicate. This tells us what the dog (subject) is doing.

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

The Basic Sentence: Subject + Verb + Object

Now we can build basic English sentences. Knowing only the rules about the subject and predicate.

A basic English sentence is Subject + Predicate (Verb + Object).

The dog runs down the street.

Subject Verb Object

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

Examples: Identifying the Subject and Predicate

The cat jumps on the bed.

Subject Predicate

The mouse eats cheese.

Subject Predicate

The bird is in the sky.

Subject Predicate

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

Exercises: Identifying the Subject and Predicate

The man ate pizza.

Subject Predicate

Adam went to school

Subject Predicate

The bear slept in the cave.

Subject Predicate

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

Exercises: Correct the sentence

Sinking the boat is.

The boat is sinking.

Eats mice a snake

A snake eats mice.

Is hot the sun.

The sun is hot.

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

Adding to the basic structure

The dog eats food.

The big dog eats food quickly.

The big dog eats food quickly under the bed.

This big dog eats food quickly under that bed.

This big dog eats food and drinks water quickly under that bed.

langpill

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com

Parts of a Sentence - Overview

English - Parts of a Sentence Course

English: Parts of Speech

Learning and understanding the parts of speech will allow you to easily master English. Many students don't learn this and they struggle with English because of it. The rest of this course we will go over each part of speech in English,

Nouns

Verbs

Adjectives, Adverbs, and the OTHER words

Prepositions

Conjunctions

Understand these, and you will have no problem learning English!

langpill

Your Daily Dose of Language - langpill.com