Lecture 33: Always Do This With All Your Permissions

Declare all your permissions that your app is going to request the user upon installing. Be honest and also list all your features including any monetization modalities. The user will see all of this and it's best to be up front then give them an opportunity to hit you with a negative review. Okay, I'll see you in the next lecture.